Customer Onboarding & KYC Policy

Opening a shipping account with OceanX - requirements, checks and timelines

Document ID	OX-CUS-001	Version	3.0
Effective date	2026-03-01	Next review	2027-03-01
Policy owner	Sebastian Lindqvist, Chief Commercial Officer	Approved by	Margaret Osei-Bonsu, Chief Compliance & Legal Officer
Applies to	Shippers, consignees, freight forwarders (NVOCCs) and notify parties worldwide	Classification	Public

1. Purpose

This policy explains how OceanX Logistics ("OceanX", "we") opens customer accounts. Our checks protect customers and OceanX from fraud, sanctions breaches, money laundering and false cargo declarations. They also help us meet maritime security and trade laws in every country we serve.

2. Who needs an account

Anyone who books cargo, pays freight or receives a Bill of Lading from OceanX must hold a verified OX Customer Account. Notify parties who only receive arrival notices may be registered as contacts without a full account.

Customer type	Account tier	Typical credit
Spot shipper (occasional)	Spot	Prepaid only
Contract shipper (service contract / NAC)	Contract	Up to 30 days
Freight forwarder / NVOCC	Partner	Up to 45 days
Key account (> 5,000 TEU / year)	Strategic	Negotiated

3. Documents required

3.1 All business customers

- Certificate of incorporation or business registration (no older than 12 months)

- Tax ID: EIN (USA), VAT number (EU), GSTIN (India), USCC (China), UEN (Singapore)
- Registered and operating address (proof dated within 3 months)
- List of directors, and of beneficial owners holding 25% or more
- Photo ID of the authorised signatory
- Signed OceanX Customer Terms and the Data Processing Notice

3.2 Additional documents by region

Region	Additional requirement
USA	FMC licence or bond number for NVOCCs; CBP importer number for importers of record
EU	EORI number; AEO certificate, if held
China	Import & export operator record; 10-digit customs registration code
India	Importer Exporter Code (IEC); AD code registration with the port
Singapore	Customs Central Registration (CR) number

3.3 Freight forwarders and NVOCCs

Forwarders must also provide evidence of liability insurance (minimum USD 1 million per occurrence). Where applicable, they must also show FIATA or local association membership.

4. Verification checks

OceanX performs the following checks before activating an account:

1. Identity & registry check: company registry lookup and a review of document authenticity.
2. Sanctions & denied-party screening: against UN, OFAC SDN, EU, UK HMT, Singapore MAS and China export control lists. Active accounts are re-screened daily.
3. Ownership check: beneficial owners are screened for sanctions and for politically exposed person (PEP) status.
4. Trade-pattern risk review: high-risk commodities and high-risk destinations require Enhanced Due Diligence (EDD). High-risk commodities include dual-use items, scrap metal, used vehicles and chemicals.
5. Credit assessment: for the Contract, Partner and Strategic tiers, using two years of financial statements and a trade-credit bureau report.

> Accounts with a confirmed sanctions match are declined and may be reported to the authorities. Where the law forbids us to disclose screening results, OceanX will not explain them.

5. Timelines

Step	Standard	Enhanced Due Diligence
Document review	1 business day	2 business days
Screening & risk scoring	Same day	3 - 5 business days
Credit decision	3 business days	5 business days
Portal access (OX Navigator)	Within 24 h of approval	Within 24 h of approval

6. Credit terms

- Credit limits are set in USD and reviewed every 12 months, or sooner after two late payments.
- Security, such as a bank guarantee or standby letter of credit, may be required for companies trading for less than 2 years.
- Credit can be suspended immediately if invoices are more than 30 days overdue. Cargo is then released only after payment ("cash against release").

7. Portal access - OX Navigator

Each account has one Account Administrator, who creates users and assigns roles (Booker, Documentation, Finance, Viewer). Multi-factor authentication is mandatory. Users inactive for 180 days are disabled automatically.

8. Keeping information current

Customers must report changes in ownership, address, bank details or authorised signatories within 15 days. OceanX re-verifies accounts on this cycle: - Spot and Contract accounts: every 3 years - Partner accounts: every 2 years - EDD accounts: every year

> Fraud warning: OceanX will never ask you to change bank details by email alone. Any change to OceanX's payment details is confirmed by a signed letter on the OX Navigator portal. Call your account manager before paying to new details.
